

CONSENT TO RELEASE INFORMATION

I grant to the Immigrant Legal Resource Center (“ILRC”) and the New Americans Campaign (“NAC”) and its agents, as well as its partner organizations, the right to interview, photograph, record, film, or videotape me, my name, likeness, image, voice, appearance, statements, and property in connection with the project NAC National Naturalization Practitioners’ Conference (“the Project”). I grant ILRC and NAC all rights to reproduce, edit, mix, prepare derivative works, distribute, and display publicly, including on the Internet and through social media, the photographs, film, videotape, quotes, recorded statements, and interviews. I understand that this consent is perpetual, that I may not revoke it, and that it is binding on me, my heirs, and assigns.

I agree that ILRC and NAC may copyright, use, and publish such photographs, films, videotapes, quotes, recorded statements, interviews, or digital reproductions and derivative works of me, my likeness, image, voice, appearance, statements or property with or without my name and for any purpose, including but not limited to, publications, advertising, and public relations purposes, as well as for information and notices regarding the Project. I understand that all materials will remain the property of ILRC and that I am not entitled to any compensation or payment for their use.

I waive, release, and discharge ILRC (including its directors, officers, employees, agents, and assigns), and any NAC partner organizations participating in the Project, from any claims, demands, or liability resulting from the taking, publication, or release of photographs, films, videotapes, quotes, recorded statements, or interviews.
